NEWPORT,

BY CRANSTON & NORMAN

127 TRAMES STREET. ATTESDAY MORN'G JULY 29, 1851.

BT The Hon. Daniel Webster will ar rive here te-day, and take a suite of rooms at the Bellevne House, which have been prepared for him.

As there are a very large number o visitors here at this time, and among them many distinguished men, from ali parts of the country, we trust that Mr. Wobster may be induced to address the public on those great questions which have occupied the minds of the people, for the last two years, and caused so much excitement in various parts of the land. No man has stood furth more prominently in behalf of the Union, than Webster, and no man has made more or greater sacrifices, or has accomplished more for the welfare of the Republic, than himself. The great thoughts of his giant mind have rolled from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the St. Lawrence to the Gulf of Mexico; and they have produced a powerful effect everywhere. They have strengthened and encouraged the patriotism of the good, and they have subdued the excited in all directions. He has caused the fanatical of both sections to pause In their career of madness, and reflect upon the consequences of their suicidal conduct. Advanced in life as he is, he has shown to the world that although the lapse of years and constant devotion to his country and her best interests, have naturally weakened his phy sical constitution,-yet his intellect is undinimed, and his reason is as powererful as it was twenty-five years ago, when he won some of his noblest laurela. Webster's position at this time is a proud one. It is true that in consequence of the noble and manly position which he has taken in regard to the great questions of the day, the bitterest anothemas of little minds have been poured out upon his honored head --yet these slanderous denunciations have only recoiled, with overwhelming force upon those who have breathed them out: while he has remained firm. with all his gigantic proportions uninjured and untarnished the Herculcan'defender of the Constitution, and the honored champion of his country's welfare

The Americans are all proud of Webster, as well they may be; and all, of all partice, feel a degree of entary which is not commor, When he occupies a pothe Government. Who thinks of danger when Daniel Webster guides the helm of State? Who is fearful that our rights will be infringed by foreign actions, when his Argus-eye rolls over the circumference of the earth, to watch the interests of America? Who trembles for the honor and reputation of the country, when Webster's "Damascus pen bathed in ice," conducts the correspondence? No one, surely, no one!

As we said before, it would be exceed highy granifying to the friends of Mr. Webster, if he would consent to address the people during his stay in town. If a few days notice was given of his in tention so to do, thousands would comfrom New York, Boston, Providence and other places, and he would have a large and intelligent audience to listen to his words of wisdom and cloquence

10°We learn that the colored people are to have a celebration here, on the first of August, in honor of the emancipation of Slavery at the British West India Islands.

. They expect three Societies to join them from Providence. They will form a procession and march through the principal streets; after which they will go to the Grove, ni the south end of Thames street, near the Lily Pand and partake of a Collation. Their celebration will conclude with a Levee in ,the evening. They invite all who desire to participate in the exercises.

er-If the visitors now in town want to enjoy a day very pleasantly, we advise them to go out to the Stone Bridge House, 12 miles from here, where they will find one of the most delightful resorts which they have ever seen. The fishing in the vicinity is excellent, and the other attractions are too numerous to mention. There is an excellent hoad there, and Mr. Hedges, the proprietor, spares no pains to suit his guests, in all respects. The ride is very delightful over one of the best roads in the cou-

FARROUTHE AMERICAN INSTITUTE .-The twenty-fourth annual Fair of the American Institute is to be held at Castle Garden, New York city, in Octoher next, for the exhibition of goods, specimens of agricultural productions and machinery. Premiums are offered for the best specimens of various descriptions of works of art and cultivation, and among other things for the skill of apprentices, whose productions a separate list is to be kept, so that they may be competitors with one another, and not with experienced workinen. ticles will be received on the 27th, 29th and 30th days of September, and the Fair will open on the 1st of October .-The anniversary address will be deliver: ed on the 16th of October by Dr Charles T. Jackson of Boston.

Corners have always been popular .-The chimney-corner, for instance, is ento the latest hour of existence. The corner-cupboard! what stores of sweet things has it contained for us in our youth-with what luxuries its elicives have grouned in manhood! A snug corner in a will! who ever objected to such a thing? A corner in a woman's heart ! Once get there, and you may soon command the entire domain. A corner in the Temple of Fame! arrive at that, and you become immortal.

A MAN OF BUSINESS.-At the Greene County, New York, Agricultural Fair, an address was made by Col. Zadock Pratt, from which we take the following

"And now I will show you the advantage those dreary heinlocks have been to the farmers of our mountain towns. Since I first engaged in farming it has been my lot to employ over fifteen thousand year's of other men's labor; an army of thirty thousand men have I employed, and I have paid those men, for their labor plone, over two million five hundred thousand dollars .-I have cleared over ten thousand acres of land, used over two hundred thousand cords of hemlock bark, and paid and adoption of the next Legislature a er half a million of dollars for it.— Used and wom out five hundred horses, and one thousand yoke of oxen - ed out of the public treasury and by Hard two hundred thousand bushels of laxation. oats, one hundred and twenty thousand tons of hay; thirty thousand barrels of beef and pork, and nearly one hundred thousand barrels of flour, and pointnes without number or measure. I have tanned one million two hundred and fifty sides of leather; my usual disbursement is over five thousand dollars per day, and I have used in my business here over ten millions. Every laborer received his money, yea every man his penny, in peace; and to the credit of this community be it said, that I never had a side of leather stelen, and never was chosen defendant in law on account of my business transactions, during my residence among year. The great object of my living is to be useful. Live with your neighbor, and not on him. Allow me, gentlemen and ladies, to conclude by congratulating you upon the rich blessings of health, power and prosperity, which sucrounds you; and may succeeding generations do as much as you have done toward national wealth first hour, when, without note of preparation, by the good management of about a dozen policemen, an avenue was formed down the nave, and the Queen, who had as usual, come early, war, on leaving enabled to pass along between living walls of her people, as quietly as if the has been in her drawing room. Leaving the north-half of the Indian department, preceded only by Mr. Mayne and Mr. Belshaw, she procreded, leaving on the King of the Belgians' arm, to Osler's Fountain, which for a short time arrested her attention. The effect at this point, produced by the thousands of excited spectators, was exceedingly fine, and all kept their places with an admirable and praiseworthy sense of propriety. It was, in point of fact, the first extempore walk of the sovereign in the presence of her people, without other guards than themselves.

TES CENTS REWARD.-The above liberal reward will be paid for the delivery, in this town, of a citizen of North Carolina that can produce satisfactory evidence that he is suffering from oppression by the General Government of the United States. As this individual would be a natural curiosity, he is wanted at once, to be sent to the World's Fair at London .- Ashrille (N. C.) Mes-

A Puzzik-The Trousers Question .-A correspondent of Brattleboro' Eagle tells us that he has an English edition of the Bible-published many years before King James' edition-in which it is stated of Adam and Eve that "they sewed fig-leaves together and made themselves "breaches," instead of aprons, as in later translations. Now as we are told, afterward, that God made them "coats of skin," we have the original pair in coats and breaches Query—Was the man in troman's clothes, or the woman in man's clothes?

A Luxury in Traveling.—Travellers in cars often suffer for want of water. The Camden and Amboy road have " breeches," instead of aprons, as in later

The Camden and Amboy road have made provision against this by a very simple yet useful arrangement. At a point midway botween the cond-pides of the cars a pedestal is firmly liked, on which is distinct a keg holding from 12 to 15 gallons, well filled with ice and water. The keg is supported by straps crossing each other, extending from the top of the car. The keg is thus firmly secured, while its central position subjects it only to a son forthwith spend his fortune; marry, and spend his wife's, and then he may be expected to apply with energy to his profession."

Why should a tectotaller refrain from marrying? Because, if he got a wife his principles would not permit him to sup-porter.
